Description	STACK will rise at the head of the Müllerpier in Rotterdam. An expressive building and recognizable from afar. A sculpture of stacked blocks. The silhouette seems to be in constant motion, just like the Maas. STACK is unique on the outside and exclusive on the inside. The building offers space for spacious single-family homes with a garden, beautiful apartments across the corner with spacious balconies or terraces and luxurious penthouses. Large windows offer spectacular views of the Maas, the harbour, the park and the city. The 70 meter high residential tower will house 77 luxury apartments, 2 penthouses and 6 single-family homes.
